CHILD'S DREADFUL SKIN TROUBLES

Had Sixty Boils when but Six Months Old—Was Annually Attacked by a Humor—It Looked Red Like a Scald and Spread Over Half Her Head-Both Troubles are Cured.

NO PRAISE TOO HIGH FOR THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little Vivin was about itx months old, her papa had a boil on his forehead. At that time the child was covered with prickly heat and I suppose in scratching it, her own head became infected for it broke out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Cintment which cured her of thementirely. Then, sometime later, her little foot got sore between the toes. Being afraid it was ealt rheum, I spoke to our doctor. He gave me a powder which dried it up, but soon after it broke out behind her ears. They cracked half way around and the humor spread up on to her head until, on several occasions, it was nearly half covered. The humor looked like a scald, very red with a sticky, clear fluid coming from it. This occurred every year, I think it was toward the spring. I always bathed it with warm water and Cuticura Soap and applied Cuticura Cointment which never failed to heal it up. The last time it broke out was when she was six years old. It became so bad that I was discouraged. Then I procured a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent mill she was perfectly well. She is now about eight years old and has never been troubled in the last two years. Tells How Physical Pain and Ex- is haustion Forced His Asking Suspension of Hearing.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 23.-Mr. John Armstrong Chaloner, who is now at his home, "The Merry Mills," this county, to-day issued the follow-ter.

Dr. Lyon, the head of Bloomingdale, was honest enough to testify at the 1899 proceedings, brought June 14, 1899, in the New York Superior Court, that he believed that I had a pain in my spine, but that it was a hypochondriacal pain. Dr. Austin Flint, Sr., and Dr. Carlos F. McDonald testified in the pay of the Charler family, and they believed the pain was an insans dright pain. Dr. Austin Flint, Sr., and Dr. Carlos F. McDonaid testified in the pay of the Chanier family, and they believed the pain was an insane sclusion.

Their testimony is false, as is proven by the physical breakdown aforesaid. Dr. John Staige Davis, chief lecturer on the practice of medicine at the University of Virginia, certified last Monday that I was too exhausted to appear, and my examination before Commissioner Booth was discontinued for the present. This certificate was published in the Charlottesyllie paper Monday last, and the case will be resumed November 30th, by which time I shall be sufficiently recovered from a fight of twelve years' standing for my property and my good name.

Hostile comment on the part of Mr. Joseph H. Choate, Jr., the opposing counsel, concerning said sofa which I had used for two days, and then abandoned upon the advice of friends, owing to said sneer of Mr. Choate's, "where is the sofa to-day?" induced me to attempt a rocking chair and a plain chair to rest my feet upon, with said above disastrous result.

I shall now proceed to present the object of this statement. I had hoped to present Lieutenant-Governor Chanler, of New York, in his true colors before the New York voters in said continued trial. The above illness, which keeps me to bed, where I now am, prevents this, therefore I must prove Lieutenant-Governor Chanler unfit for any office myself, however much against my will. I am reluctantly forced to do this, because, through the action of the entire and combined Chanler family, acting through Mr. Winthrop Astor Chanler, I was thrown into a madhouse March 13, 1897, and stayed there until I escaped, nearly four years later, and have been deprived of my property ever since, though pronounced same and competent by the courts of Virginia and North Carolina upon my return South after said escape.

It is a case of the truthfuiness and good name of Lieutenant-Governor Chanler, and dovernor Chanler and Winthrop Astor Chanler, and the rest of the Chanler family, against t

To Whom It May Concern:

The fight for my $1,500,000 and unblemished name came to an abrupt close last Saturday from fatigue and pain brought on by sitting in a hard, straight-back rocking chair during my three-days' testimony in Charlottes-wille, in place of reclining upon a sofa sis I have been forced to do for any extended period of mental work ever since the spring of 1899, in Blooming-dale. NORFOLK, October 23.—One of the most brilliant weddings of the autumn took place yesterday afternoon at 4 oclock at the Epworth Methodist Ppiscopal Church, when Miss Rose Virginia Jones became the bride of Mr. William Thach Shannonhouse. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, to which only the bridal party, out-of-town guests and relatives of the bride and groom were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Shannonhouse left for a Northern tou, and on their return will make their home at 108 Bute Street.

SENATOR MARTIN IN PETERSBURG

A Great Audience Greets Him and Mr. Kelley in Spite of Rain.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., October 23.—A great audience crowded into the Academy of Music to-night, notwithstanding a driving rain, to hear Elector Samuel L. Kelley and Senator Martin discuss the issues of the campaign. Mr. Kelley was the first speaker, and from a conservative standpoint delivered a caim and forcible argument in behalf of Democratic principles and the Democratic ticket, often receiving generous applause at his good points and arousing merriment at his wittledsman and standing himself a Democrat should in this campaign desert a candidate so wise as Mr. Bryan and a platform so broad and satisfactory as the Democratic. The Republican party was once a party of a great idea; it is now without principle and the party of the alien and stranger. Mr. Kelley declared the tariff to be an indefensible robbery, and made an eloquent appeal to Democrats to rally to the support of their party in November. His speech was a splendid effort, and created great enthusiasm.

Senator Martin Speaks.

He said he had lost his voice in the cause of Democracy. He indignantly protested against the Taft claim that many Democrats would be so ignoble and man as to vote for Bryan while praying for his defeat. He urged the importance of this election and the responsibility of the citizens; enlarged upon the Republican panic and the conditions in the country under Republican rule, and proclaimed that if any Virginian could see anything in the record of the Republican party to make him love it, let him say what it is. The Senator devoted a large part of his speech to the question of the bank guarantee of deposits, whi [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fennell—Benzley.

BEAVER DAM, VA., October 23.—A pretty marriage was solemnized Wednesday at noon in Rouzie's Methodist Church, Hanover county, when Miss Hallle Beazley became the bride of Mr. Robert Fennell. The church was artistically decorated in evergreens, autumn leaves and dahlias. The bride was attired in a going-away gown of blue cloth, and carried Bride's roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Francis Maddox, as maid of honor, whe wore brown taffeta and carried carnations. Mr. Charley Chambers was best man, and Messrs. Hugh Fennell and J. Maddox Beazley acted as ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Walthall, pastor of Mizpah Presbyterian Church, near Richmond. Mrs. R. F. Dillard, of Chilesburg, played the wedding march.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party was driven to Spring Level place, the home of the bride, where a luncheon was served, after which the couple left for a Northern tour.

COUNSEL OF GILBERT WILL FORT TO THE END

NORFOLK, October 23.—The announcement is made by Attorney Dat Coleman, who defended young Benjamin F. Gilbert, convicted yesterday of murder in the first degree, in the killing of Miss Amanda Morse, that if a new trial is denied by Judge Hancke he will appeal the case to the Suprem Court. Falling in this, it is understood that Governor Swanson will be appealed to for a commutation of his sentence, on the ground that the jury had some doubt as to his sanity—shud some doubt as to his sanity—shud so that they recommended him to the mercy of the court. Mr. Coleman is confident that his client will never go to the electric chair in Richmond.
